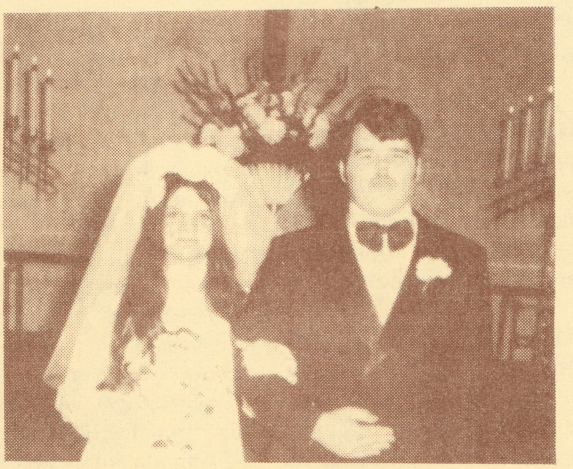
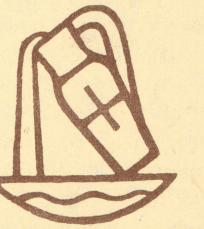
PARISH NUPTIALS



On Saturday evening, April 22, Mr. Gregory B. Stripp and Miss Mona E. Dillon spoke their vows of marriage during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Fr. Harvey. Mr. Timothy Hines of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Elaine Pickell of Chelsea, were the couple's main attendants. Mr. Scott Hines was commentator and lector of the Mass. The organ music was provided by Miss Ann McKernan of Chelsea with Sister Mary leading the singing and providing the solo.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stripp of Ypsilanti. The new bride is the daughter of Mrs. John P. Dillon and the late Mr. Dillon of Gregory.

May your love support and fulfill your lives, Gregg and Mona!



NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

During the Easter Vigil ceremonies, two infants from our parish also received the Sacrament of Baptism. Donna Louise Watters, daughter of Albert D. and Mary J. Jahnke Watters, and Amy Marie Slate, daughter of Charles and Ruth Schranke Slate were received into St. John's Parish by our Deacon, Rev. Mr. Kenneth Grodzicki. Donna's sponsors were Donald C. and Mary O. May and Amy's sponsors were Thomas Schrank and Gloria Zaccagnini.

Welcome, Donna and Amy.

TROOP 240 NEWS

This is Scout-O-Rama time when the scouts show what scouting is all about. The scouts of Troop 240 invite you to visit our booths at Yost Field House in Ann Arbor, Michigan, anytime Saturday, April 29, between the hours of 2 and 9 p.m. and Sunday, April 30, between 2 and 5 p.m.

Fred Gillman, Senior Patrol Leader, says that the Scouts of Troop 240 will have three booths at this annual scout fair. The Flaming Arrow Patrol with Patrol Leader, Ray Shock, will show how to build and fire rockets. The Falcon Patrol with Patrol Leader, Wes Keller, will put ecology in action and show how to make ornaments with discarded bottles. The Wolverine Patrol with Patrol Leader, Mark Newhall, will show how the scouts earn the Personal Fitness Merit Badge.

Boys at St. John's who are eleven years and older should visit this show and see what scouts at Troop 240 are doing.

Things People Wonder About

Ruth Lorenz, a member of St. John's Choir, gave the beautiful rendition of PANIS ANGELICUS by Franck at the 11:00 Mass last Sunday. She has been a member of St. John's Choir during this past season, and now that we know she has such a lovely solo voice, we hope that we will be honored again by her solo voice rather than only knowing she is part of the beautiful voices we hear weekly in the choir.

Bill Hall, a member of the pre-seminary program and a member of St. John's Parish, delivered the Communion meditation at all the Masses last Sunday which had been designated as Vocation Sunday. He spoke on the meaning of priesthood, both common and ministerial, and gave us much food for thought as we listened to this young man give meaning to the life he is preparing to live as a future priest.

PRE-SCHOOL OPEN CLASS DAYS

Parents of four and five year olds who will be new to the program, should be planning on visiting the Pre-School classes this Sunday if they have not done so already, so that they can become better acquainted with classes and teachers. Last Sunday and this Sunday have provided good opportunities for doing so.

ALL registrations for Pre-School classes next Fall must also be taken care of by this Sunday, between 9 and 10:30 a.m., so that class sizes and teachers needed for next year may be determined.

PRE-MARRIAGE SERIES

A Pre-Marriage Series will be presented at Holy Trinity Chapel on Saturday and Sunday, May 20 and 21, from 1 to 4 p.m. on both days. Call for reservations at 482-1400.

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

At the annual luncheon to be held on May 5th, Mrs. Patrick Heck will be the main speaker on the topic, "Behold the Woman." For tickets at $1.50 each, call 485-1358, or 483-3961.

WORSHIP COMMISSION ELECTION

On May 15, there will be an election of officers for the Worship Commission. Anyone wanting to serve as an officer can contact Lee Sanford at 483-4283.

SINGLE CATHOLIC ADULTS

The SCA monthly business meeting is April 26, 8 p.m. at St. John's Rectory in Ypsilanti. We'll all head to Page One in Arborland after the meeting. The group is also having its own Casino Party, April 29, at 8:30 p.m. Try your hand at Blackjack, Craps, and Roulette at Mike Grady's (434-1764). Food, drinks, and a fistfull of play money for only $3.00. For more details, call Margaret or Sue (482-1942), Tom (971-7114) or Mike (434-1764).

WANTED

There are 3 families in desperate need of donated furniture - beds, dressers, couches, chairs. Anyone having any of these items, please call Catholic Social Service at 484-1260. Donations are deductible for Income Tax purposes.

NO BAKE SALE IN MAY

We want to thank all who helped make our April Bake Sale a success. Due to the second Sunday in May being "Mom's Day" we will not have one in May. Let's make it a bigger and better one for June.

Ypsilanti Jaycee Project

FOR INTERESTED ECOLOGISTS

It looks as if spring has finally arrived in Ypsilanti. The departure of snow means the appearance of spring flowers, the first sprouts of grass, and trash - a whole winter's worth!

A "Downtown Cleanup" is being sponsored by the Ypsilanti Jaycee Auxiliary. Because Ypsilanti is YOUR town also, we are asking you to please participate in this project. The date is set for SATURDAY, MAY 6th, FROM 8:30 to 10:00 a.m. There will be a meeting for assignments and instructions at the Mall area (next to the Clark Shoppe on Washington St.). For further information, please contact Mrs. Karen Majeske (434-1135) or Mrs. Nancy Taylor (482-6458).

Making Ypsilanti an attractive city is a job for all who live or work here. Please give YOUR city 1½ hours on this Saturday morning. A small snack will be served to all participants at the completion of the work.

ST. FRANCIS SCHOOL REGISTRATION

St. John's Parishioners are urged to register now if they wish to have their children attend St. Francis School for the next school year. Some of our grades are approaching class size limits. When that limit is reached in a grade, additional students will be placed on a waiting list.

We currently have an enrollment of 409 students, compared to 354 students last year. Our enrollment for the 1972-73 school year already stands at 415 students; we will have an additional seventh grade homeroom.

Anyone interested in registering their children should contact Mrs. William G. Knorr, 1915 Independence Blvd., Ann Arbor, Phone: 663-8404, and plan to attend a meeting concerning the tuition plan for next year. Information about the bus service from Ypsilanti will also be available at this meeting on Wednesday, May 3, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Aerial View with Mt. Blanc (4810m.) ECUMENICAL CENTRE, GENEVA

THIS PRIVILEGED HOUR...

By Fr. King

After experiencing the culmination of the Paschal mystery through the cascade of liturgical exercises in Rome, the following week was to provide quite a contrasting series of experiences. The schedule just simply called it 'Ecumenism' and involved what we will call the Geneva Adventure, for lack of a better term.

In spite of the threat of Alitalia Strike, we left Easter Monday for Geneva. Nestled in a semi-circle of terraced slopes of the Jura Mountains and the towering Alps with the mighty Mt. Blanc in the background, it smacks of the flavor of France which it borders and a cleanness and newness that stands in stark contrast to the Eternal City.

Our first stop, early Tuesday morning, was at the Ecumenical Center of the World Council of Churches. In the course of the two-day visit there we heard such distinguished speakers as Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, present General Secretary of the World Council; Dr. W. A. Vissert Hooft, former Secretary and founder of the Center.

Dr. Blake, I found, to be a very charming and witty person, and very frank and open. He spoke of the improved relations between Catholicism and Protestantism -- an improvement which he described as a 'miraculous change by the Holy Spirit.'

Dr. Hooft spoke of the crisis of growth and remarked that the Chinese symbol for 'crisis' is the same as that for 'opportunity.' But we began to realize the tremendous problem of Ecumenism, not simply from a Catholic-Protestant standpoint, but from the inter-communion problems within the Protestant bodies themselves. One could not help but admire the men who were giving themselves so generously to attempt to work through the maze to that ideal prayed for by Christ 'that all may be one.' Perhaps the most scintillating phrase came from the Anglican Canon Jenkins who summarized the basic hope that is involved in the truth that 'Even the most institutionalized Church can't keep a good God down.'

Wednesday afternoon we went into Bossey where we visited an Ecumenical Institute. It may have just been a bad day for its director, Professor N. A. Nissiotis, because he seemed quite discouraged about the whole thing, so the less we say here, the better. Suffice it to say, that there is an institute here, again beautifully located in the mountains, where the courses in Ecumenism are given and this Institute has the blessing of Rome and enjoys participation by Roman Catholics. I will reserve judgment on Bossey until our one Lansing Seminarian, Jim McDougall, will spend a few weeks there this summer. Jim is studying at the North American College and he has taken on the job of educating me to Roman culture. But more of that later.

Thursday we left Geneva for Cluny in France. Cluny was to be the cultural center of Europe and by the 12th century the Clunisian order numbered about 1200 monasteries scattered all over the West and peopled by thousands of Monks. It is only a vestige now, most of its buildings destroyed. But the objective of our trip was the Ecumenical Community of the Monks of Taize. This is a relatively new community and its members are rather young. They dress in the habit similar to the Benedictines, except it is white. The acreage that forms the site of this community is couched in a setting of sloping hillsides, neatly patterned off into agricultural plots or vineyards. It was rainy and overcast while we were there but even the subdued beauty was gorgeous. We didn't get an official greeting from the Monks nor an address and I think this was unfortunate. We were informed, however, that Taize must be experienced, so experience it we did.

The living conditions were quite primitive; where we stayed -- and it was, I'm sure, much less than the monastery and much more than the most elegant tent, of which there were hundreds that formed a kind of nomadic, circus-like atmosphere. Why all the tents? To house (?) the thousands of young people, that seemed to come and go in droves from almost every country imaginable. I do not believe I know just why they all came; I'm sure many were just vagabonding the planet earth. But there was something there that I do believe was quite phenomenal - and that was a spirit of searching, a quest, a certain seriousness about the world that I would not presume to say was not from the Holy Spirit. Because when the largest building on the grounds -- the Chapel -- was scheduled for prayer, it was quite filled with these young people -- and they knelt or stood or were bent in prayer for long periods of time. The sign on the door to the church had a crudely written command of silence and it was observed.

Before we left Taize, we concelebrated Mass in the little crypt chapel downstairs where the Blessed Sacrament is reposed and in this atmosphere I think I first began to experience the burning yearning for unity whose rumblings were quietly being felt in the many expressions that this week's experience had made real to me.

Alitalia by now had swung into full strike program and we flew back to Rome early Sunday morning via Swissair. I cannot say the ecumenical experience was encouraging or fulfilling. On the contrary, its small beginnings left rather a feeling of emptiness and anticipation.

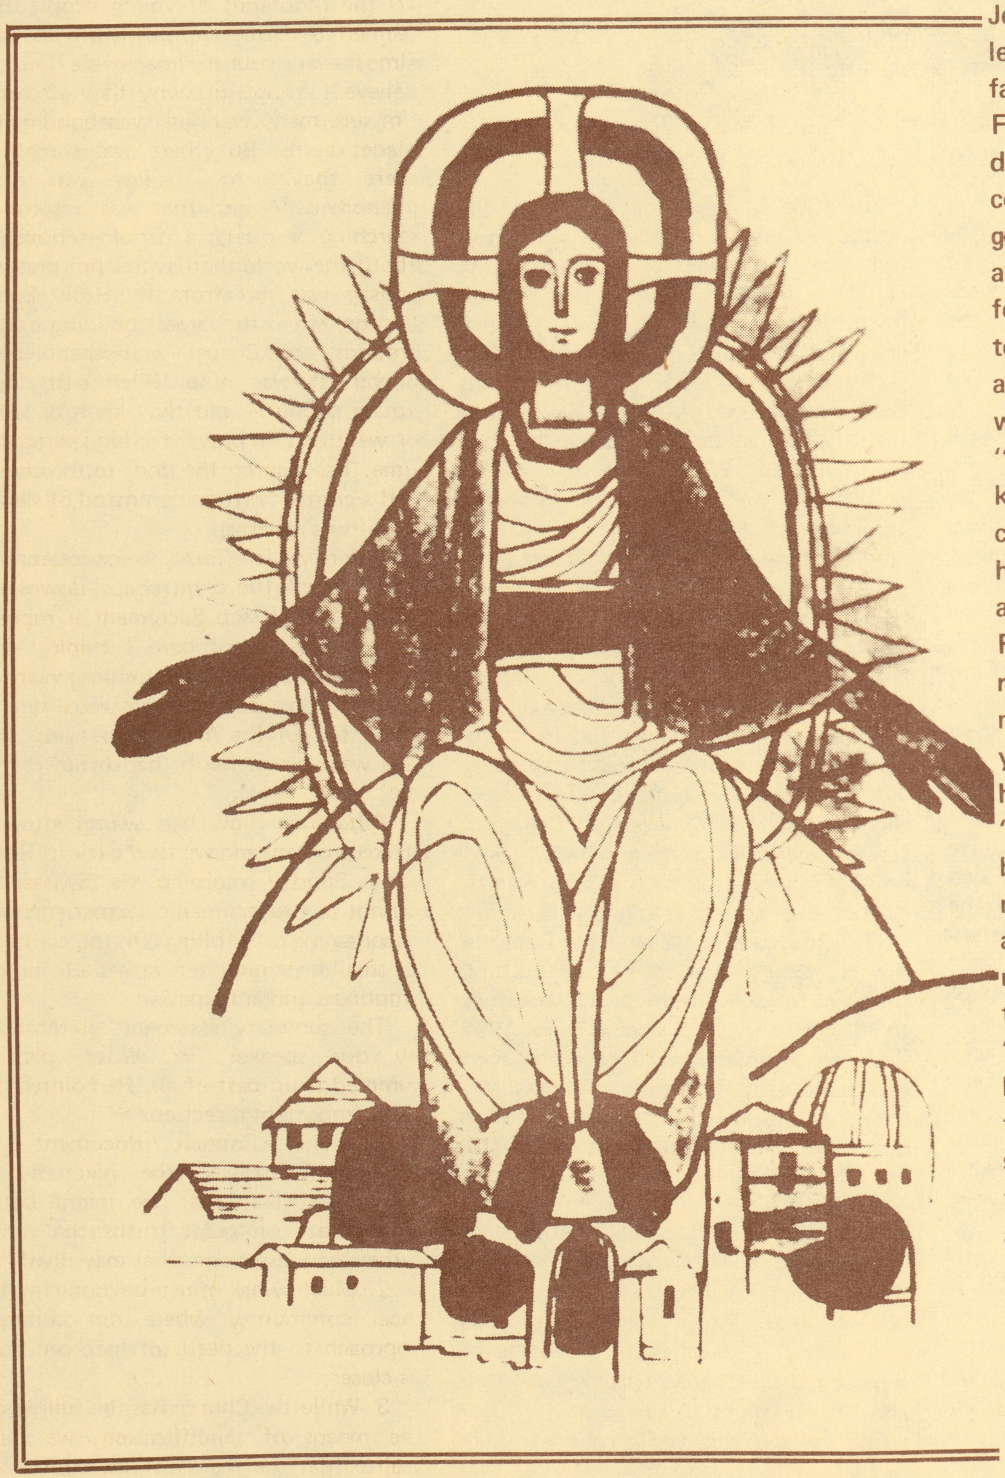
The summary statement on Monday by our speaker, Fr. Witte, perhaps summed it up best of all. He pointed out three important directions --

1. The Council document on ecumenism stressed the hierarchy of truths and fact that we might better concentrate on great truths that unite rather than lesser ones that may divide;

2. Much work must be done in the local community where our common approach to the needs of men can draw us closer;

3. While the Church has the fullness of the means of sanctification, we must realize that the marks of the church are not totally present within ourselves nor are they totally absent outside ourselves.

And so went the Geneva experience and so continues the path that we must strive to follow to bring to greater fulfillment the prayer of Christ for unity.



THE GOSPEL

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and faith in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places; otherwise, how could I have told you that I was going to prepare a place for you? I am indeed going to prepare a place for you, and then I shall come back to take you with me, that where I am you also may be. You know the way that leads where I go." "Lord," said Thomas, "we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus told him: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me. If you really knew me, you would know my Father also. From this point on you know him; you have seen him." "Lord," Philip said to him, "show us the Father and that will be enough for us." "Philip," Jesus replied, "after I have been with you all this time, you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak are not spoken of myself; it is the Father who lives in me accomplishing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works I do. I solemnly assure you, the man who has faith in me will do the works I do, and greater far than these. Why? Because I go to the Father.

John 14, 1-12

ST. THOMAS SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS

A statement expressing why you wish to run for the St. Thomas School Board and signed by 16 eligible voters and -- you are a candidate! The petition must be sent to Mr. Thomas Clark, 1901 Crestland, or Mrs. Robert Fogelsong, 1800 E. Stadium by 4 o'clock Wednesday, May 10. Eligible voters are "any registered member of St. Thomas Parish, over 21 years of age, or parent or guardian of a child in St. Thomas School."

The election will be held after the 4:30 and 7:30 Masses on Saturday, June 3, and after the morning Masses, Sunday, June 4.
